TITLE ONE STUDENTS at Pamplin Elementary School display their awards fromthe recent "World's Fair of Reading" auction.

Pamplin students enjoy auction

Title One students in grades four through six at Pamplin Elementary School held their World's Fair of Reading auction May 4. For four months, these students have been earning points by reading and reporting on library books.

The students used their points to bid on items donated by local businesses and patrons. Everyone had enough points for at least one item. Rodney Jennings was the "big spender" with 549 total points.

Prize items were donated by Congressman Dan Daniel, President Ronald Reagan, Farmers National Bank, First National Bank of Farmville, Appomattox Truck and Tractor, the U.Va. Athletic Department, Mrs. Margaret Glover and Mrs. Nancy Carwile. Mr. Raymond Dickerson served as the auctioneer, and everyone had an exciting time at the auction.

Miss Harvey honored

Anita Marie Harvey

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Anita Marie Harvey has been named a 1982 United States National Award winner in Business Education.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than five percent of all American high school students.

Anita, who attends Appomattox County High School, was nominated for this National award by Mrs. Anne Cook, an accountant teacher at the school.

Anita's name will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published annually.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards for selection set forth by the Academy.

Anita is the daughter of Lewis and Shirley Harvey of Appomattox and the granddaughter of Mrs. Manie Harvey and Mrs. Katie Austin, both of Appomattox.
